Deus Vodka is distilled in Siena, in a location dedicated and specialised in the production of high quality spirits. Our selected wine goes through six stages of the distillation columns.

The result of this process is a pure and clear product.

The vodka is carefully filtered twice on activated carbon filters at a controlled temperature.

Our team of experts carries out a further final filtration process, which takes place on crystal fragments and allows to obtain the unique and soft taste.
