Borgo alla Terra

Chianti Riserva DOCG

The Geografico estate in San Gimignano is located at foothills of the world-renowned walled medieval hill village, which sits halfway in between Siena and Florence. A community of 30 local vinegrowers specializes here in taking care of healthy Sangiovese and Vernaccia vineyards. The Geografico winemaking team selects and vinifies the best grapes to create our premium Borgo alla Terra range. An expression of a cultural heritage that fills the Piccini family with pride.
